

//// Role/Play: Collaborative Creativity and Creative Collaborations
Student Fellows Symposium

March 12, 2018; Washington, D.C.

Organized by: Ben Shneiderman (Chair), Liese Liann Zahabi and Molly Morin Supported by the Arthur M. Sackler Foundation for the Arts, Sciences and Humanities and Google, Inc.

Our ambition is to redirect the history of ideas, restoring the Leonardo-like close linkage between art/design and science/engineering/medicine. We believe that internet-enabled collaborations can make more people more creative more of the time.
